

NEW YORK, MAY 19, 1927

EDWIN A. HODGSON, Editor.

THE DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL (published by the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb, at 163d Street and Fort Washington Avenue) is issued every Thursday; it is the best paper for deaf-mutes published; it contains the latest news and correspondence; the best writers contribute to it.

"He's true to God who's true to man;
Whenever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest
Neath the all-beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves,
And not for all the race."

Specimen copies sent to any address on receipt of five cents.

Notice concerning the whereabouts of individuals will be charged at the rate of ten cents a line.

THE UNPARALLELED HAVOC which has been wrought by the Mississippi flood has opened the purse strings of the public, and contributions to aid the sufferers of the great disaster have poured in from all quarters. The deaf, always roused to action when misfortune has come upon others, have sent their mite from all parts of the country. Here in New York, where the JOURNAL is published, individuals, organizations and institutions have helped along the relief. The personnel of the New York Institution through collections among themselves, aggregated $82.50, which was forwarded. The Deaf-Mutes' Union League, a social organization of young men, voted a donation and had it forwarded. Others have sent to the Red Cross. It is indeed very fortunate that the loss of life has been small compared with the extent of the disaster. But the property loss is enormous, and the government of the United States will recompense the losers for damage caused by blowing up gaps in the levee system.

Up to this date the monetary aid by the deaf of the various States has not been made known. We are keenly alive to the loss by our brethren of the South.

When a great calamity occurs, the sympathy and aid of every State of the United States is centred—there is no East, no West, no North, no South. The sorrow in the land is universal.

It is a splendid sign of the times to see the Knights of De l'Epee and the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, unite to help a brother in misfortune, and the Benefit for friends for an artificial leg for Mr. Pons, advertised in the JOURNAL, ought to be a rousing success.

Obituary

Died, at his home, 58 Burbank Street, Pittsfield, Mass., of heart failure after a twenty-five minutes illness, at midnight, Friday, April 22d, Charles S. Risley, only son of the late George and Eleanor (Laisler) Risley, old Fanwood graduates, and husband of Nellie Loucks Risley. Mr. Risley was born in Hubbardville, Madison Co., N. Y., June 30th, 1864. He graduated from the Rome School about 1885, with high class with honor. He had been employed at the General Electric Co., for twenty years as winder on transformers. The funeral was held at his late home, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. C. Heyn, of St. Stephen's Church officiated, for he was a devoted member. On Tuesday the body was taken to Salisbury Center, N. Y., for burial in family lot of Mrs. Risley's home town. The floral offerings were many. The parlor all banked with them for friends and frats, I, and neighbors. He is survived by his wife, Nellie L. ## TORONTO TIDINGS

Miss Muriel Allen and James Tate went out to see the former's folks in Hamilton over the week-end of April 30th.

Mr. John L. Smith, who was taken to the General Hospital for nose treatment just before Easter, is now home again and steadily improving.

There was a bee at Mr. A. W. Mason's the other day, when Mr. Meech and two sons, Alex McCaul, David Bayne, John Walton and Sam Pugsley got together and gave Mr. Mason a lift at fixing up his new fence in the rear of his home. They did quite a job, and "Grandma" Mason gave them a supper that would please a king.

James Reeves, who passed through here a week before Easter enroute for Windsor and Detroit, returned here on April 30th, and attended our indoor picnic that evening. He left for his home in Winnipeg next day.

Mr. Colin McLean was the speaker at our service on May 1st and spoke very earnestly on "Do Thou This Thing Willingly." Miss Annabel Thomson gracefully rendered, "Jesus is Tenderly Calling You Now."

Mr. Walter Bell, who was obliged to lay up for a week with rheumatic trouble, has about recovered his duties at Oshawa on May 1st. We hope he does not get a relapse of the same ailment.

Mrs. W. W. Scott has gone to her old home at Wellandport to assist her mother at house cleaning and will be away till Victoria Day, when her husband expects to go over fish on that holiday and return with her.

Another deaf friend has come and Mr. Douglas Rivet, of Winnipeg, a joined our numbers in the person of strapping young chap who has secured a position as a printer in this city.

Mrs. Clarence Pinder, who went over to see former acquaintances in Buffalo, Akron, and other parts across the line, has returned to our midst again.

Oscar McPeake, who came here from Winnipeg early in the new year, and has been looking for a job ever since, has finally obtained work here.

The married deaf of this city seem to find that it is cheaper to own a home than live on the rental basis. Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Bowman, who have been living with the former's parents on DeGrassi Street, since their marriage three years ago have purchased a newly built home at 24 Dilworth Crescent and moved into it the latter part of April.

Miss Nellie Justus, a sister of the late Miss Mary Justus, of Bobcaygeon, and the late Mrs. Hamilton McBride, of Westmeath, accompanied by Miss Mary McBride, our accomplished interpreter, were visiting relatives in Bobcaygeon over the week-end of April 30th.

Miss Norma Smith and her parents motored out to Millbrook, near Peterboro, on May first, where they spent the day with relatives.

The annual social that the members of the Toronto Association gives every year at the close of their winter session, was held in the Forrester's Hall on College Street, on April 29th, and was a brilliant event and fairly well attended. All the games were keenly contested and good prizes given to the winners. All report a good time.

After being with us for almost three weeks, Miss Elsie McDougall, of South Indian, left for Oshawa on May 2d, to see her brother there for a while, then left for Ottawa, where visited a sister before finally going home.

Nearly thirty of our friends were hospitably entertained at "Georgina House" on May 2d, by Miss Beulah Wilson, the occasion being in honor of her sister, Mrs. Silas Baskerville's natal day, who was unaware of the impending event. A very jolly time was spent by everyone and Miss Wilson and her assistants heartily thanked for such a treat. Misses Annabel Thomson and Evelyn Hazditt ably assisted the hostess in looking after the various games and the serving of eats that were aplenty. Another pleasant event has gone into oblivion.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shepherd have sold their home at 50 Arlington Avenue, and on April 29th moved into their new and more up-to-date home, which they have just purchased at 52 Pinewood Avenue.

Miss Beulah Wilson was a guest of friends near Aurora over the week-end of April 30th.

Just before Easter, Mrs. A. W. Mason sent her lifelong friend, Mrs. Olive P. Henderson, of Westboro, her Easter greetings and was surprised to receives from Mrs. Henderson, not only her same wishes but a cheque for fifty dollars for our church. Thanks for such a gift.

Harry Holmes, who has been caretaker of our church during the past year, has resigned and he and Mrs. Holmes have gone to live on the Island across the bay, where our genial Harry has a good job. We'll miss them as they were always with us in more ways than one, lending a helping hand or joining in the fun.

Our Board of Trustees held their May meeting on the 3d inst. The local treasurer reported that the conference was a success financially. Since joining the new church Union some of our by laws and other matters must be wisely so a special meeting of the Board will shortly be called to deal with this matter.

Mr. R. S. Edwards spent the week-end of April 30th with his friend in Hamilton.

A special meeting of our Epworth League was held on May 4th, when short talks on the past, present and future welfare of this League were given by Messrs. J. R. Byrne, W. R. Watt, C. A. Elliott and A. H. Jaffray, concluding with the rendition of "God Be With You till We Meet Again" by our experienced choir, Mesdames H. Whealy, W. R. Watt, F. E. Harris and F. E. Doyle.

We are glad to say that George Elliott, who was recently taken to the General Hospital suffering from throat trouble, was able to go home on May 4th. He is improving.

Our Ladies' Aid Society held a meeting on May 5th, to arrange for some means to raise money for our church. A garden party was suggested and now seems to be gaining favor. It may be held either at our church or in some of our beautiful parks in June.

"How did you enjoy the picnic?" was the question asked of one another next day. It referred to the first picnic we have had this year and the first of its kind ever given by the Deaf here. It came off on April 30th, under the auspices of the Bridgen Club, and was one that exceeded our most sanguine expectations. Chairman Roberts and his staff of enthusiastic helpers were kept busy throughout, looking after the comfort and pleasure of all. Mesdames W. R. Watt, F. E. Doyle and F. E. Harris were untiring in looking after the serving of refreshments and ice-cream in picnic style. All members of the Bridgen Club, their children and outside visitors, were admitted free, while non-members were charged a nominal fee. From the latter a goodly sum was realized.

While Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Grooms and Mrs. Van Valin added their names to the long membership roll. Just before serving refreshments, a pleasing incident occurred when Mr. David Bayne, of Ottawa, who has since left for home, was called to the front, where, on behalf of the club, Mrs. W. R. Watt read an address of love and good-will to him, and little Esther Mackay, only child of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mackay, presented him with a beautiful and elegant mahogany cane as a slight token of esteem the members had for him. Mr. Bayne was completely taken aback, and after regaining his composure, made a short reply, heartily thanking all for such kindness.

GENERAL GLEANINGS.

The beloved father of William H. Gould, Jr., of London, passed away on May 3d, after several months illness, in the 78th year of his age, and was buried at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in that city. To Willie and other relatives we extend deepest sympathy.

Owing to his inability to work, Mr. James Braven, of Brantford, is renting his house, while he and Mrs. Braven are living with their daughters.

Mr. Vernal Morse died in Kitchener recently, aged eighty years. His wife, long separated, now lives in Toronto.

Congratulations to Miss Beverly Moynihan in passing her millinery with honors. She is doing fine in Waterloo and was fifteen years young on May 10th last.

Miss Sylvia Caswell, of Niagara Falls, Ont., enjoyed the week-end of April 30th with an aunt in St. David's.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval E. Orser, of Tristram, Alta, are doing very well on their farm and expect to be very busy this coming season. The former was in Ponka on April 16th, and was anxious when crossing the Battle River, during the height of the great flood. This river has overflowed its banks all the way from Pigeon Lake to beyond Ponoka, some forty-five miles in extent.

Mrs. Leo, Gorzowski, of Flint, who has been in Goderich for some weeks past visiting her sister, has now returned home, her husband having motored down and brought her home.

We hear that Mrs. David Sours, of Clinton, hurt herself recently, but not seriously, when she collided with an open door on their car.

Miss Helen A. Middleton, who recently secured a lucrative position at Niagara Falls, Ont., reports that she is well satisfied with her work and her surroundings.

After visiting in Toronto over Good Friday, Miss Ada James, of the Belleville School teaching staff, went up to St. Thomas, where she spent the Easter recess with her aged father.

Sorry to hear of the recent death of Mr. Vernon Woodward's father, at St. Williams. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Black, of Kitchener were guests of Mrs. Ida Cherry Robinson, in Preston, on the 25th of April.

The household goods of Miss Kate Fenner, of Waterloo, are to be auctioned off on May 18th.

The report that Henry Clements, of Galt, has recovered his speech and hearing is all bluff.

Mrs. John A. Moynihan and daughter, Beverly, of Waterloo, were down in Preston, on April 24th, and were at a dance there on April 28th, and at a reception in Galt the following evening.

CHICAGO.

"Another deaf lodge has been started," they tell me;
"Another insurance bunch enters the field."
With the same eager arguments trying to sell me
Policies to soothe and to shelter and shield
My loved ones—when I have been summoned to glory—
("No; gone down to blazes," says dear Tammanee.)
Though I wiggle and squirm in an unjust pillory
I'm steadfast and staunch to the N.F.S.D.I.

Silent Court No. 594, Tribe of Ben-Hur, gave its first annual ball at a hearing hall on April 30th.

Founded less than a year ago, it is said to comprise between 20 and 50 deaf men—mostly living on the North-west side—under the leadership of Mike Kerr.

"Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery," said some wise old geezer—and on that basis the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf is certainly flattered. The N. F. S. D. was the first in its field—at least the first to make a success of the venture of proving we deaf are as good insurance risks as the hearing. It had a long, hard row to hoe. Of the original pioneers, who used to fight for it tooth and nail, only Washington Barrow (certificate number 8) and Francis P. Gibson (certificate 61) are still among the elect presiding over its destinies. Starting with nothing 26 years ago, we now have over 600 members and nearly a million dollars in assets.

The annual banquet of the Chicago chapter of the Gallaudet College Alumni, at the Laura Jacobsen cafe, April 29th, was one of the smallest, yet most enjoyable on record. The hearing daughters of the president, Rev. P. J. Hasenstab, saw to the decorations and other incidentals most admirably, while the chicken dinner at $1 was equal to loop $2.50 meals.

Instead of tiresome and tedious set speeches, President Dr. Hasenstab sprung innovations following the feed. First he had each guest detail just what caused him or her to matriculate at Gallaudet; next "If you had your college career all over again, what would you avoid and what would you do to better yourself?" This open discussion beats set speeches a mile.

The membership also discussed oralism in its relation to improvement in the use of English composition. It was stated that Miss Elizabeth Peet, the venerated professor of English composition at Gallaudet, in a paper read before the Teachers' Convention in Iowa two years ago, reported a marked let-down on the use of English by oral applicants for college scholarships.

It was decided to foster the Illinois quota of the Edward Miner Gallaudet fund, which has dragged woefully of late, and $7 was contributed for that laudable purpose. President Hasenstab and Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Meagher were re-elected for another term. Those present were: The Hasenstabs and daughter Mrs. Elmes; the Ben Franks, George Flicks, George Doughertys, the Meaghers, Richard l'Hommedieu Long and his daughter with her husband, Thomas Dees, Mrs. Morton Henry, and the Rev. Henry Rutherford, sixteen in all.

FUNERAL FOR O. BLAIR

Funeral services for Sidney O. Blair, 80, pioneer merchant in the coffee, tea and spice business, will be held at 8 p.m. today from his home, 4933 Woodlawn Avenue. He had been a resident of Chicago for more than fifty years. For many years he was president of the importing firm of E. B. Millar & company, 408 West Grand Avenue, until his retirement in 1913. He is survived by his son, Robert O. Blair, his daughter, Mrs. Russell Burke, of New York, and four grandchildren. Burial will be at Mount Hope Cemetery.

The above from the Tribune of May 4th, concerns the father of Robert Blair, one of the popular leaders of Chi-Oral-106, and well known to the deaf.

The Hebrew club had a program May 1st, on the West Side. Nels Olson gave some of his sleight-of-hand, then trotted out his new bulldog to show its tricks. The bull pup had stage fright, and was a complete fizzle—thereby qualifying as mascot for "Tammany." The crowd probably enjoyed this animal-training stunt more than anything else on the program.

A birthday dinner was given Roy, oldest son of Mrs. Charles Kemp, on the 4th, followed by three tables of 500. Winners were the Evisons and Mrs. Meagher.

Mesdames Wondra and Tell united to fete 16 ladies on the 29th, at the cozy Wondra home on the Northwest side. Refreshments predominated—particularly the delicious home-made cakes for which Wondra's beautiful wife is noted. Unusual prizes at 500 went to Mesdames Brimble, Leiter, Kemp, Roberts, J. Sullivan and Gibson.

Next day Mrs. Frederick Menken had a dozen ladies at her own party—where everything in the kitchen is painted a brilliant turkey-red, even the handles of the kitchen knives. This seems to be the latest fad among the hearing bon-ton, and Mrs. Menken leads the way in Deafdom. It was her second wedding anniversary. "If at first you do not succeed, try, try again," is her motto. Everyone asked for the recipe for her cakes. Winners at 500 were: Mesdames Evison, Tanzar, Whitson, and booby prize, Gus Hyman.

Mrs. Ingval Dahl is in Minnesota, where her sister is recovering from a severe illness.

Ernest Craig delivered a lecture before the Pas "lit" on the 7th.

The Walter Whitsons were among those invited to the opening reception of the New Stevens—"the world's largest hotel."

Joe Miller's little daughter attends an oral kindergarten.

Mrs. J. Blair, for several years chef of the weekly Wednesday suppers at All Angeles', is now paralyzed on one side.

Mrs. Simon Hendrickson gave her husband a surprise birthday party on the 30th.

Miss Alma Spears, of Wisconsin, spent a week-end here.

Mrs. Hal Keasal spent two weeks with her mother in Minneapolis.

Edward Knobloch was recently operated on for rupture, late in April. Edwin Stafford is around after over two weeks in the hospital.

Dates ahead: May 28th—Sac, bunco and 500. June 4—Sac, "Opposite Sex Party."

THE MEAGHERS

GREENSBURG, PA.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, of Wilkinsburg, recently motored to town to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, of East Pittsburgh Street. Mr. Smith, an formerly employed as a linotype operator in the Greensburg Tribune-Review Publishing Company. He is an attache of the Pittsburgh Press.

Russell Diehl is no longer a resident of Greensburg, but stays with his parents at Trafford, Pa. P. Edward Logue, of Los Angeles, Cal., was a recent visitor in Latrobe, Pa. Mr. Logue is a product of the Edgewood School.

Messrs. Fry and Phillips, of Pittsburgh did "Greensburg" lately.

Several invitations have been received here to attend an annual alumni dance to be held in the Gymnasium of the Edgewood School on Saturday evening, May 28th, of the benefit of the Map Fund. It is expected that several silents from Greensburg will participate in the affair.

Mrs. Melissa W. Weirheimer, sister of Frank Widamon, was Chairman of the Committee appointed the Regent of the Phoebe Bayard Chapter of the American Revolution, which worked in the matter of Pennsylvania Day. Mrs. Weirheimer urged State Senate John Kunkle from Westmoreland County to introduce a bill, which passed through the State Legislature at Harrisburg, Pa., "designating March 4th the as Pennsylvania Day." The bill was sent to Governor John Fisher, who signed it thus making it a law.

The writer lately visited with friends at Indiana, Pa. While there he walked about a mile in the morning to the house, where he met his classmate, Daniel Manner with an unexpected call. Both of them had not met each other for the space of forty-two years.

Misses Charlotte Manner, Leona Miller and Iva O'Hara, all of Indiana, are for the present employed in the Razor and Leather Goods manufacturing Company of that place, and are doing well.

The writer was greatly shocked to hear the sad intelligence of the passing of his friend, John Rols-house.

It is reported with pleasure that Mrs. F. S. Hogenwiler, of Jeanette, is recovering nicely from a serious attack of indigestion and liver trouble she had for several weeks past.

James Watts, of the Jeanette News-Dispatch, called at the Tribune Review office some time since to pay ye local a friendly visit. He seems to like his present position well.

REX.

How many know what the Buffalo Evening News tells us—that butterflies can and do make noises?

When the "whip" butterfly is surprised, it opens and shuts its wings in quick succession and makes a noise like the snap of a lash. Some hibernating butterflies, when disturbed, make a faint hissing sound by slowly depressing and raising their wings. The noise produced in that way resembles the sound that you make when you blow slowly through closed teeth. Other sounds that butterflies produce resemble the friction of sand-paper.

A large number of caterpillars make sound by striking their heads against the leaf on which they are resting or by swinging their heads from side to side and catching the mandibles in the roughness of the leaf or on the silken threads spun upon it. It is said that a certain kind of chrysalis, when disturbed, emits a slight sharp chirp or clicking noise.

There was also a meeting of the Ladies' Committee at 1:30 p. m.

The military ceremonies began at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The Cadet Band gave a concert during the competition.

The setting-up exercises and Evening Parade reflected credit on the military instructors and the deaf cadets alike.

In the competition in the manual of arms great interest was manifested. The judges penalized the slightest deviation from perfect form by ordering the offender to step back from the line. The excitement among the pupils was at fever heat as the number of competitors dwindled down to three or four and a buzz of finger talk followed the selection of the winners.

This is the military program in full:—

Review by Lieutenant Richard McNeil 71st Infantry N. G. N. Y.

Setting up Exercises, accompanied by Cadet Band. Evening Parade.

Individual Competition in the Manual of Arms—Judges, Lieutenant Richard McNeil, Lieutenant David E. Misner, 71st Infantry N. G. N. Y.

Awarding of Medals by Lt. Alexander Grossman.

The Sanger Memorial for Excellence in the Band, was won by Cadet Sergeant Otto Johnson.

The Gold Medal for Excellence in Band and Field Music, was won by Cadet Drum Major Frank Heintz.

The Principal's Gold Medal, for the best drill officer, was awarded to Cadet Lieut. George Lynch.

Lieutenant McNeil in awarding the medals expressed his extreme pleasure in the excellency of the drill and in the closeness of the competition. The Lieutenant said that he had seen service Overseas and had witnessed many boys' organizations drill, but never before had he seen a deaf organization, and he wished to assure the boys that their performance excelled that of any other juvenile unit he had ever seen. He congratulated them very highly upon their proficiency and said he would like nothing better than an opportunity to visit us again in the same capacity.

FIELD AND TRACK MEET.

On May 14th, the weather was fine in the afternoon. This was a great day for the Fanwood Athletic Association and the Barrager Athletic Association, as they had excellent grounds for their athletic competition.

At 1:30 p.m. the band played, and headed by Cadet Drum Major Heintz led the parade, behind whom came the officers of the two organizations and ten teams, each under captain, followed.

Principal Gardner and many spectators witnessed the parade, and the opening races and games that followed.

The prizes for the boys were the eight-inch black letters of "F" as the first place, the emblems of "A F A" as the second place, the other small emblems of the same letters as the third place. The events were won by the following:—

A few words of information in a letter or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

SPRING COSTUME CARNIVAL.

Saturday, May 14th, was not what you could call a fine Spring day, and in the evening, when it was time to attend the scheduled Spring Costume Carnival of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League it began to rain.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather that greatly marred the journey to Yorkville Casino, where the Spring Costume Carnival was held the attendance was far above expectations.

The large hall on the top of the Yorkville Casino on Saturday night was well filled. Over 700 were present.

Besides the large dancing floor, which was well waxed for dancing, it has a balcony, and all the boxes seemed to be well filled.

A round to these boxes revealed many old timers who have not lately attended deaf-mute public socials.

At about eleven o'clock the Grand March, led by President Kenner and Mrs. Kenner, followed by the ranking officers and their partners began, but before half through it abruptly had to terminate, for there was too many in line to give the judges appointed for the propose time to pick the winners of those in costume.

The judges who made the awards were: Mr. E. A. Hodgson, Mr. A. McL. Baxter, Mrs. Elsie De Carney, Mrs. Hope Jager and Mr. Donald Kenner.

The prize winners were the following:

1. Louis Rubenstein, Cupid, $15.
2. Mrs. Morris Kremen, Bride, $12.
3. Miss Vera Hoffman, Greek Dancer, $10.
4. Jack Seltzer, Comedian, $8.
5. Miss Rose Wax, Spring Gardner, $5.

There were about twenty in costume, and the majority adhered to the rule at which the prizes were to be awarded, original and comic.

The first prize, the Cupid was both original and comic, because the cupid instead of shooting his darts with bow and arrow, carried these things on his back, and instead played on a harp to deaf ears—can you beat that, Jack Seltzer, who received fourth prize, deserves special mention. The judges billed him as a comedian.

He was attired in pajamas, and over this he wore a dress, which in front contained the American Manual Alphabet—cut off from the fourth page of the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL. He had a bag full of paper clips, which he scattered all over the dance floor, and carried a nursing bottle, which contained red fluid instead of milk. No body knew what he represented.

A neatly printed booklet program, which contained business cards of patrons of the League was issued and distributed to all who attended. Mayor Walker was invited, but as on that evening had made a previous engagement to spend the week-end out of town, sent his appreciation and regret.

The Committee of Arrangements, to whom the greatest praise must be given for their untiring labors consisted of the following: Abraham Barr (Chairman), Joseph Abramowitz, Paul Murtagh, Benjamin Shafrenak, and Louis Uhlberg.

The following members composed the Floor and Reception Committees: Floor Committee—Ludwig Fischer, Director; Leo Berzon, Manager; Charles Sussman, Lester Cohen, Calman Davis, Benjamin Elkin, Lester J. Hyams, Alexander Mirosluboff, Jack M. Ebin, Benjamin Wolff.

Reception Committee—Joseph Mortiller, Chairman; Gideon Berman, Harry Hersch, William Lustgarten, Louis Steinberg, Max Witsotzky, Robert Fischel, Peter Weiner, Abraham Hynes.

The officers of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League for 1927 are Marcus L. Kenner, President; Benjamin Mintz, 1st Vice-President; John Funk, 2d Vice-President; Anthony Capelle, Secretary; Samuel Lowenherz, Treasurer; Samuel Frankenheim, Max Miller and Allen Hitchcock, Member of Board of Governors.

On Wednesday evening, May 11th, a surprise birthday supper party was tendered to Miss Ruth Kevit, given by Miss Arlene Weber, at her home in Rockaway Park.

Eight girl friends present included Misses Goldie L. Aronson, Josephine Donnelly, Catherine Dyer, Mrs. Freda Grossinger, Sadie Leder, Dorothy Kerbel, Ruth Kevit, and Judy Solomon attended there.

After a great excitement, they went to a dining room, where a table was beautifully decorated with yellow and orange. A delicious supper was served and they all enjoyed it.

Ruth received some lovely useful gifts.

Mrs. Sara Small Temple, of Newark, N. J., where she is a special teacher in the public schools celebrated her Easter vacation by making a trip to her old home, in Maine in her new "Whippet" coach, for the purpose of bringing down her deaf parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Small, of Richmond, Maine, both of them being graduates of the Hartford School. While Mrs. Temple has a license to drive, most of the driving was done by her daughter, Lauraine, and this will also serve as news to their many friends, that only recently Miss Lauraine became Mrs. Glenn Joyce, her husband also being from the Granite State. Mrs. Temple and her sister, Mrs. Wm. Frick, of Bloomfield, N. J., have arranged a number of delightful affairs in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Small, and a dinner given at Mrs. Temple's home on Sunday, May 1st, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lynch, Mrs. Merrell, Miss Studt, Messrs. Harry P. Kane and Alexander L. Pach and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pach and some Newark friends of Mrs. Temple. Mr. E. A. Hodgson was among those old time friends of Mr. and Mrs. Small who were invited, but were unable to attend. Effort was made to locate Mr. John Wilkinson, a classmate of Mr. and Mrs. Small at Old Hartford, but letters mailed to him were returned "not found."

Miss Marion Thompson entertained a small gathering at a delightful informal party in her parent's home in Brooklyn on Saturday evening, May 7th. Miss Thompson proved herself to be as equally original, when she treated her guests to many novel games, which in spite of their being the only pastime of the evening, created an enlivening atmosphere as when she rewarded nearly everyone in the party with novel prizes. The table, daintily decorated in pink and baby blue and appropriately provided with delicious viands was set for nine persons. To keep the ball a-rolling, the Reverend and Mrs. Braddock and Mr. Carr recounted amusing stories and jokes. ### Paterson N. J.

Old time readers of the JOURNAL, will remember the sweet Mary Alice Carroll of Buffalo, who became Mrs. John O'Rourke, and died a few years afterward. Mention of the lady also often carried mention of her mother, Dr. Jane W. Carroll, then of Buffalo, but who in recent years has made Paterson, N. J., her home.

Dr. Carroll died in Rome, Italy, on April 21st., at a ripe age.

The funeral was held at St. Joseph's, Paterson, on Friday, May 13th, with the Bishop of Trenton, and other high-church dignitaries officiating, and the way was cleared for the funeral cortege through the city streets by motor cycle policemen.

Dr. Carroll was a woman of rare achievements with a record rarely held by any other woman, for besides being the mother of ten children, she graduated as Doctor of Medicine from Buffalo University, and after practicing a number of years, and highly successful as a physician, at the age of 64 she passed the law examinations and was admitted to the bar of the State of New York. She took up the practice of law in 1908, and besides her professional interests, she had vast real estate investments to look after as well as her home and children's welfare.

Of her ten children, six survive her, one of them being Dr. Rose Carroll, a graduate in medicine.

Mr. John O'Rourke, who, as stated is a son-in-law, came to New York to be with the family when the remains arrived from Italy, and for the last sad rites. Since 1913 Dr. Carroll has resided in Paterson, her home being one of the city's residential show places.

Nutmeg Production

The nutmeg is the pit or kernel of a fruit which, when ripe, looks something like a small peach. The pulp of this fruit is quite unpleasant to the taste. Inside the pulp is a red flesh known as mace—one of the most popular spices known to modern cookery. When you taste a dish flavored with mace, you will know that you are eating what was once the soft red covering of a nutmeg. Nutmeg trees properly located and well cared for are remarkably prolific. In one year a single tree has been known to produce more than 2,000 nutmegs. The nutmeg blossom is white, bell shaped and as fragrant as it is beautiful.

Gallaudet College

The student activities of the past week began with the program the Gallaudet Chapter of the Y. W. C. A. gave in Chapel Hall Sunday evening, May 8th. Miss Caldwell, S. S., opened the services with a prayer. Miss Velma Brassell, '30, recited the hymn, "Mother." A famous evangelistic couple, Dr. and Mrs. Wood, were then introduced to the student-body. Dr. Wood told of his travels which covered nearly all of the globe, while Mrs. Wood said a few words about mothers, it being then Mother's Day.

Friday evening, the campus in front of Chapel Hall was most delightfully dotted with happy students and members of the faculty. It was a most pleasing sight, that of groups of merrily conversing people gathered at the feet of the Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet statue—an unconscious, yet striking testimonial to the marvelous success of Dr. Gallaudet and his kind in bringing light to the hitherto ignorant deaf. The occasion in which these people were gathered was the annual Lawn Fete given by the Jollity Club, this time in honor of Mrs. Edward Crane, (nee Cornelia Rauch) who, sad to say indeed, is not going to return next year in her capacity of Instructor in Domestic Science and Gymnastics, which she has most ably filled for some years. Towards the end of this affair, refreshments were served. Of the Lawn Fete, only one disparaging thing can be said—it happens only once a year.

Friday night, May 13th, was far from being an unlucky night, for it was pleasantly passed by attending the last meeting of the Literary Society in Chapel Hall. Mr. Casper B. Jacobson, '27, gave the valedictory and a talk in which he explained "Dreams and Night-Walking." He took us on an interesting journey through a psychological wilderness into the very dark glens of dreams and subconscious activities. To Mr. William Landry, '28, was given the responsibility of making a response and giving a reading. "Have Dogs Souls?" was the amazing title of his reading. However, he is strongly suspected of having perpetrated a hoax upon us, for instead of handling the weighty question of whether or not dogs have souls he told of the peregrinations of a three-quarter strain collie by the name of "Buff" and left us the brain-racking task of deciding whether dogs have souls or not. For those who cared to stay, a social was held:

We may very well consider ourselves extremely fortunate in having with us for the week-end Misses Florence Lewis, '21, and Mary Belle Mineetree, both being good reasons for a stroll along Fifth Avenue being a most pleasurable one. Miss Lewis ran down to spend a few days with her friends on Kendall Green and, of course, to experience the delight a grad has when he returns once more to old stamping grounds. Miss Mineetree, being a very good friend of Miss Lewis's, so good that Miss Lewis is sometimes inclined to call her "her little girl," decided to make good use of this opportunity to take in Washington, D. C.

Both Miss Lewis and Miss Mineetree are affiliated with the Hispanic Society of America, the former being, as the correspondent understands, in charge of the antique department of the Spanish Museum and the author of not a few monographs pertaining to Spanish matters. She is to go abroad soon, being sent by the Hispanic Society to study lace in Belgium. Although very much in the dark, we can hardly be blamed for presuming that she is to study Belgium lace in order to be able to judge the comparative values of Spanish lace. Whatever her mission is, she is assured of our most sincere wishes for success and, incidentally, a pleasant sojourn abroad.

We were given a taste of Miss Lewis's skill in facial expression, when she kindly consented to render in signs Kipling's immortal "Recessional" as a special feature of the Sunday School program May 15th. As accurate as a cinematograph, she registered all the emotions that go to perpetuate "Recessional." It can be said with truth that she has few peers, if any, as an expressive interpreter of songs the music of which is more often than not lost upon us.

New York was not represented by these young ladies alone, but also by Mr. Roy C. Carpenter, '02, who ran down a week previous preparatory to a summer in Indiana. The genial Mr. Carpenter disappointed the numerous friends he won among the students by leaving after a few days' stay in Washington, D. C.

GEORGE WASHINGTON WINS LAST LEG.

Our hopes of our winning permanent possession of the magnificent Hotchkiss Cup were dashed to the ground when the trackmen of George Washington University swept us off our feet for a 96 to 36 count, Saturday afternoon, May 14th.

The great Hotchkiss Cup was bought in 1924 by the trackmanagers of both colleges with the purpose of having a series of three matches in subsequent years, the college winning two of which to gain permanent possession of the cup. In 1924 the Kendall Greens won the set-to, thereby gaining the right to possess the cup for one year. The next year George Washington sent over a crack team which bore off the cup. In 1926 there was no meet, it being cancelled for some reason or other.

The Hatchettes carried off all the first places save two, which were the 220-yard low hurdles, won by the Iowan, Lau, '30, and the 220-yard dash, Thompson, '30, breasting the tape to make the time of 23 3-5 seconds.

Not with the intention of presenting an alibi, the correspondent regrets to tell of the sad condition in which the Gallaudet track men found themselves Saturday. Byouk was suffering from general soreness and despondency, Rose not feeling like excelling past performances in a wet field, his track-mates feeling the same way about it.

Eastern Iowa

March 27th last, Mrs. Madeline Allen, died at her daughter, Mrs. Mary Courady's home at Kewanee, Ill. She was eighty-eight years old and was the grand niece of Betsy Ross, who made the first American Flag.

Mrs. Chas. Sharrar, of Davenport, Iowa, was informed by telegram of the death of her brother and left by auto with her relatives for Danville, Ill., to attend the funeral. She came back April 9th.

March 10th, Mr. and Mrs. Nels G. Berg and Mrs. Earl Harmon, of Kewanee, Ill., motored to Geneseo, Ill., to spend the day with Mr. David Gildersleeve and family on their farm. All enjoyed the visit so immensely as they did not visit each other for all winter.

Mr. Frank Nevens, of Chicago, left last week for Muscatine, Ia., where he obtained a job as a printer.

April 24th last, Mrs. O. T. Osterberg got a telegram that her sister, died at Phoenix, Arizona, and brought to El Reno, Okla., for burial. She left the same night for El Reno, to attend the funeral and visited with her mother and brother. On way back home recently she stopped at Cameron, Mo., to visit her old friends.

Robert Hermann and Iva Parker are working at the Muscatine Pearl Works at Muscatine, Ia. The former plans to leave for Council Bluffs, Ia., soon to visit. There is suspicious on his plans for the future.

Two weeks ago, Mrs. Mrs. Roscoe Bradney and Art. C. Johnson and family of Rock Island, Ill., motored to Kewanee, Ill., where they visited with their old classmates, Mr. and Mrs. Nels G. Berg and Mr. John Allen and family. They had a nice visit.

Auto Driver Was Deaf, Dumb and One-Armed.

SOMERVILLE, MASS.—Adolph Fisher, of Stockholm, Me., driving under a State of Maine license, was arrested here because Policeman Chester F. Warner asserts he did not stop on a signal.

The officer charged that Fisher passed through a line of cars which had been stopped, and when he blew his whistle Fisher kept right on going.

The officer then brought all his latent lung power into play in several shrill blasts. But Fisher never even batted an eyelash, according to the officer's story.

It was only when a friend, riding with Fisher tugged at his coat, that the machine was brought to a stop. When the officer approached, the friend informed him that Fisher is deaf and dumb. Fisher has one arm, the left having been amputated.

News items for this column can be sent to B. M. Edgar, 56 Latta Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Preston L. Stevenson is now making her home in Columbus on Reed Avenue.

Mr. Louis LaFontaine motored down to Cincinnati a few Sundays ago, but the object of this trip is not known to the writer.

Mr. Philip Holden has resigned his position at the school and has accepted a place with a Columbus Baking Company.

Mrs. Laverna C. Pumphey and daughter Evelyn, of Zanesville, were guests of relatives over Easter at Granville. Evelyn is reported as making fine progress in her school.

Messrs. Harry Hartard and Joseph Arnold, of Columbus, are now possessors of Star coupes and no doubt will find themselves growing more popular with the ladies.

May 21st is the date for the baseball team of the Kentucky School to tackle the Ohio team. Two games are to be played.

The S. S. C. girls have contributed $5.00 to the Columbus Red Cross fund for the flood sufferers, thus keeping up this good record of helping others in need.

At the meeting of the Columbus Division, N. F. S. D. last Saturday, Mr. Roy Conkling, of Versailles, Ohio, and Mr. Ray Black, of Dayton were interested visitors.

Mr. Carl Crossen has the hiking fever and is expecting to foot it to California this summer and may be in Denver, in time for the convention, to see what sort of a delegate Mr. John makes.

On Easter Sunday many friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Troyford, in Zanesville, and enjoyed the day in a social way. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Deem, Mr. R. Schultz, Parkersburg, W. Va.; Mr. P. Eller, Mannington, W. Va.; Mr. J. Breedlove, Charleston, W. V.; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Schwartz, Cambridge; Mr. and Mrs. L. Dye, Williamstown, W. Va.; Mrs. A. B. Quinn, Marietta; Mr. John Metzger, Millersburg, Pa.; Mr. Ralph Carr, New Comerstown; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene White, Mr. T. Sharp, Misses F. and N. Mills, of Zanesville.

We have just learned that on March 26th, Mr. Fred Wondrack, of Cincinnati, was given a birthday surprise party. Fred went home early in the evening, after a hard day's work, and took an easy chair to rest awhile. Sleep soon overtook him, and he was unconscious of the fact that some twenty friends were gathering in his home. He was rudely awakened from his sound sleep to find himself surrounded by friends. At first he could not understand it all, but was soon informed that his friends had come to congratulate him. A pleasant evening passed and Fred's mother served a fine supper to them all.

Supt. and Mrs. J. W. Jones motored last week to Akron, Cleveland and Toledo, to inspect the day schools in those cities. The teachers in these schools received their train in the Ohio School. Miss Rose Marsh, supervising teacher of speech, accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Jones as far as Akron.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Goetz, (Mary Jones) of Sandusky, accompanied by the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jones, of Akron, motored to Columbus, and were greeted by their many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Goetz are graduates of the Ohio School. Mr. Goetz holds a good position with the Sandusky Journal as a linotypist. While in Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Jones obtained permission to take their two younger daughters to Georgia, their old home for a two weeks' visit there with relatives.

Since 1908, the school has had its heat furnished by the Columbus Public Service Co., but at that service is being discontinued a new power house has to be erected on the already overcrowded school grounds. The legislature voted to allow $50,000 for the erection of the new power house and work was started in earnest this week.

Anyone wishing to see a real western stamped and rodeo, should be in Columbus during the week of May 27-June 4, as there will then be the first international cowboy rodeo ever held in the U. S. Many Canadian cowboys, as well as from Western U. S. are coming, and thrills aplenty are promised, and all this is to be under the auspices of the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts.

Word has just been received that the legislature late yesterday, passed, over Gov. Vic Donahey's veto, the bill to transfer the schools for the deaf and for the blind from the Welfare department to the department of Education. The legislature, after a two weeks' recess, met May 9th, and adjourned Wednesday midnight. Three bills were passed over Gov. Donahey's veto.

PHILADELPHIA

News items for this column should be sent to James Reider, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

An illustrated lecture will be given by the Rev. Warren M. Smaltz in All Souls' Parish House on Saturday evening, May 28th, at 8 o'clock. Admission will be twenty-five cents, for the benefit of the Coal Fund.

The Coal Fund will continue to be a burning question in All Souls' Parish until not only a sufficient sum has been accumulated to buy the coal required, but also until the necessary sum has been reached by which it is proposed to improve the heating system at the church. When this is accomplished, it is expected that the yearly outlay for coal will be just about one-half what it is now. It is therefore an object worth striving for.

The Pastor of All Souls' Church has broad-cast the following invitation:—

"Spend Memorial Day this year at All Souls'. Mrs. Moore will preside at a Card Party in the evening. Mr. Ledden will amuse the kiddies.

Come to All Souls' this time, and really rest."

By the above we understand that, while the Parish House will be open during the day as a "community center," there will be nothing doing until in the evening. If further information is desired, better ask it of the Pastor direct.

Mrs. Frank J. Kuhn, who was recently operated on for appendicitis at the Samaritan Hospital on North Broad Street, is recovering and has since returned to her home in Olney.

The Pastoral Aid Society will hold its annual Strawberry Festival at All Souls' Parish House on Saturday evening, June 4th, next.

The ladies of fashionable Holy Trinity Church recently invited the members of the All Souls' Pastoral Aid Society to meet them at Holy Trinity Parish House and treated them in recognition of the good work they contributed through them, for the Southern flood sufferers. There was once a time when the ladies of Holy Trinity gave the poor and needy of All Souls' Mission very substantial assistance, so that it is not only counted a duty but a pleasure to reciprocate in the way they are doing now.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Horn on April 5th. It is their second child. Mrs. Horn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Delp.

Mrs. William Browne, of Boston, Mass., who is Parish Visitor under the Rev. Mr. Light, is visiting All Souls' Mission to make observations that may be helpful in her work at home. She gave a talk before the Cleric Literary Association last Thursday evening, and pleasing reminiscences of the late Rev. Mr. Hefflon, who began his Episcopal work here.

Mr. William H. Eakins, Reading's venerable deaf-mute, who is past eighty years of age and still hale and hearty at that, is visiting his daughter's family in this city. He came last Thursday and is "booked" to stay some weeks. When the Sesqui-centennial was in swing last year, he visited it several times, while the writer, who lived within easy reach of it, saw it only once during the whole time it was open.

The Beth Israel Association for the Deaf closed for the season on May 1st, about a month earlier than usual. It is expected to reopen next Fall.

Mr. Howard E. Arnold is still confined at the Hahnemann Hospital as the result of a fall on the street over seven weeks ago. He expects to return home in a week or so.

The report that Mr. Frank Jahn moved his family over into New Jersey from Roxborough, Philadelphia, is not correct. He bought a small property on the Jersey side and intended to move there, but changed his mind at the last minute, at the earnest solicitation of his aged parents, with whom he has been living. Mrs. Jahn was formerly Miss Stella Artz; Mrs. Paul Faanh, of York, Pa., is her deaf sister.

You see, you place yourself under obligation for a small amount each year, which you hardly miss from your income, and after the policy is started, you hate to give it up. First thing you know you've got a bank-roll that never would have existed for you in any way.

And think of the protection you've been getting all the while!
